

Endorsements for a Lawyer's Case for God

Recommended Book of the Week for May 29, 2009 by Dr. Tom Hill's Eaglezine of the Eagle Institute.

Dr. Tom Hill, nationally known speaker, author, and educator. Co-author of Chicken Soup for the Entrepreneurial Soul

Clear, concise, and challenging...Written with logic, as well as humor...Illuminating and instructive...A Lawyer's Case for God is well worth investigating.

Messianic Times, May 2009

As a professor in the area of apologetics and a writer of an academic text book (The Biblical World View, an Apologetic) I have come to realize the limitations of my type of academic and comprehensive approach to apologetics. People need what I call popular apologetics that defends and gives a good case for our faith. Writing popular apologetics requires simplification and readable presentations which do not distort the evidence. Jim has written a worthy contribution to popular apologetics that fulfills these criteria.

Dr. Dan Juster

Founder and Director of Tikkun International, founding president and general secretary of the Union of Messianic Jewish Congregations for 9 years, the senior pastor of Beth Messiah congregation for 22 years, and a co-founder of the Messiah Bible Institute in several nations. Serves on the board of Towards Jerusalem Council II, participates with Road to Jerusalem and provides oversight to 15 congregations in the USA as well as overseeing emissaries in Israel and the Former Soviet Union.

I urge everyone who questions God's love to read this book.

Rose Price Cregar

Holocaust Survivor and Speaker on Forgiveness

Jim Jacob answers the most frequent arguments concerning belief in God, the Bible and the Messiah in an excellent, succinct way that strengthens the believer's faith, and challenges the pre-believer to search for truth. We highly recommend this book as a tool for sharing God's Good News with the House of Israel!

Dr. Neil Lash and Jamie Lash

Co-Hosts of Jewish Jewels T.V. Program and Rabbi and Rebbitzin of Temple Aron HaKodesh

It is my pleasure to endorse the book "A Lawyer's Case for God" as our congregation plans to use it as part of our outreach to the secular community. This book is written with enough facts that a person seeking God should get most of their questions answered. It is written in a clear, concise, and thorough manner so that everyone can understand. It is a compelling book which answers key questions of faith. As I read it, I found it strengthened my faith. This is a must read book and one that needs to be given out to those we love.
