

Plan of Salvation

The issue of receiving G-d's salvation is deeply ingrained in the Torah, and is expressed frequently in traditional synagogue liturgy. For example, the recitation chanted during the waving of the vegetation at Sukkot, called the HaShannah, is, "Save us, now, we pray." G-d delivered His people at the Red Sea, and many other times in our history. Receiving eternal salvation is consistent with this thinking.

The Brit Khadashah communicates a plan of salvation that can be summarized as follows.

- G-d Himself is the source of a satisfying, worthwhile life.
You will show me the path of life; In Your presence is fullness of joy; At Your right hand are pleasures forevermore. Psalm 16:11
- Man has separated himself from G-d.
You shall be holy, for I Adoni, your God, am holy. Lev 19:2
But your iniquities have separated you from your God; And your sins have hidden His face from you, So that He will not hear. Isa 59:2
- Man cannot remove the sin barrier by his own effort.
But we are all like an unclean thing, And all our righteousnesses are like filthy rags; We all fade as a leaf, And our iniquities, like the wind, Have taken us away. Isa 64:6
- The sin barrier can be removed by believing G-d's word (faith), and by having the blood of the atonement.
And he [Avraham] believed in Adoni, and He accounted it to him for righteousness. Gen 15:6
For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes atonement for the soul. Lev 17:11
- G-d has provided the blood of atonement for us today.
But He [the Messiah] was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities; The chastisement for our peace was upon Him, And by His stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; We have turned, every one, to his own way; And the LORD has laid on Him the iniquity of us all. Isa 53:5-6
- G-d made sure we could recognize the Messiah by specific identifying marks.
He was from the family of David. Jer. 23:5-6
His city of birth was Bethlehem. Micah 5:1
He had a supernatural nature. Jer. 23:5-6, Isaiah 9: 5-6
The manner of his execution was crucifixion. Psalm 22: 14-17
He rose from the dead. Psalm 16:10
The time of His coming was before the destruction of Herod's Temple. Daniel 9:26
- Yeshua of Nazareth fulfilled these and many other prophecies, which makes a statistical improbability of 1 out of 10¹⁵⁷!!
- You must by faith receive Messiah Yeshua into your life in order to receive G-d's salvation, have a personal relationship with Him, and a satisfying life. You can do that right now through prayer.
