For 250 years (1634-1884), one of the ways congregations engaged public life was to hear an election sermon. As an election approached, houses of worship would fill with citizens eager to reflect on the moral qualifications of those running for office.

Tony Perkins: This election isn't going to save this country, but it could destroy it.

According to some truly shocking statistics from George Barna at Arizona Christian University (ACU), as many as 41 million evangelicals plan to sit this election out — more than enough to hand the country's keys to the eager and radical Left.

For Donald Trump's opponent, the news that one of the Dems' biggest obstacles to victory is voluntarily shirking their civic duty is cause for premature celebration.

[<https://washingtonstand.com/commentary/to-the-41-million-christians-unlikely-to-vote-this-november-you-need-to-repent>]

Interestingly, the survey found that one out of seven of these likely non-voters said they could be convinced to vote if family or friends talked to them about the election's importance, if they received objective information about the important positions of the major candidates, or if they believed the election was going to be close and their vote would make a difference.

2016 Presidential Election

Let's fast-forward to more recent elections. In 2016, Donald Trump was the decided underdog — so much so that well-known outlets like Reuters declared "Clinton has a 90 percent chance of winning."

[<https://washingtonstand.com/commentary/does-every-vote-really-matter-heres-proof>]

Four different states were decided by less than one percentage point (Michigan, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin).

32 million churchgoing Christians unlikely to vote in November, survey finds - Metro Voice News
More than 100 million people of faith, including 32 million churchgoing Christians, are unlikely to vote in the November election, according to new research from the Cultural Research Center at Arizona Christian University.

Christian churchgoing voters historically have supported the more conservative major-party candidate in a presidential race and appear poised to do so again this election cycle, although with fewer of them casting a ballot than in the most recent presidential race.

The survey also found that large numbers of congregations have distanced themselves from the election, refusing to even encourage congregants to vote and avoiding teaching related to many of the key social issues that will determine which candidates people will support. Enthusiasm for this election is lower than usual and certainly lower than in 2020.

A primary reason for that diminished interest is the public's distaste for both major-party candidates. Other significant reasons for the heightened disinterest include the aging out of boomers and elders (two generations that were highly involved in past elections) alongside the emergence of the less politically energized millennials and Gen Z; public dissatisfaction with the quality of government; and the widespread expectation that the results of the election will be manipulated by illegal, behind-the-scenes activities and voting by illegal immigrants.

The Black Robed Regiment was the name that the British placed on the courageous and patriotic American clergy during the Founding Era (a backhanded reference to the black robes they wore). Significantly, the British blamed the Black Regiment for American Independence, and rightfully so.

[<http://nationalblackroberegiment.com/history-of-the-black-robe-regiment/>]

The ministers of the Revolution were, like their Puritan predecessors, bold and fearless in the cause of their country. No class of men contributed more to carry forward the Revolution and to achieve our independence than did the ministers. . . .

[B]y their prayers, patriotic sermons, and services [they] rendered the highest assistance to the civil government, the army, and the country. [8] B. F. Morris, HISTORIAN, 1864

Be Strong and Courageous: Let's Get to the Polls

History of Election Sermons

1. David Barton of Wall Builders had two volumes of such sermons 1730-1805
2. It was an understood duty to speak out on issues, policies, candidates.
3. Separation of church and state are not in the US founding documents: Declaration, Constitution, Bill of Rights
4. 1802 Thomas Jefferson was president. Baptist Conv Danbury, CT, wrote to ask him clarification of the first amendment to protect religious liberties. Jefferson wrote "Building a wall of separation is to keep the government out of the business of the church; NOT to keep the church out of the business of the government. The phrase has been misused to remove G-d from government.
5. 1954 Congress approved an amendment to the IRS tax code, called the Johnson Amendment. 501c3 exemption would be lost if a 501c3 endorsed a candidate.
  - It has never been prosecuted.
  - Or HaOlam is NOT 501c3. We are an incorp. Kansas Charity.

On May 4, 2017, Trump signed an executive order that does not repeal the Johnson Amendment, nor does it allow ministers to endorse from the pulpit, but it does halt the enforcement of its consequences by directing the Department of Treasury that "churches should not be found guilty of implied endorsements where secular organizations would not be."

In 2023 the IRS came after Pastor Hamrick for preaching this. Alliance Defending Freedom helping him. Hopes to overthrow Johnson, like Roe!

If you are only giving for a tax deduction, then you have no reward.

G-d uses flawed people.

- Consider marriage. Your spouse is not flawed, but you are!
- David, Avraham, Shimson / Samson, Hizkiyahu / Hez, Cyrus
- Lk 18.19 Yeshua said to him. “No one is good except One—that is God.

Policies are greater than personality.

Judges Dvarim/ Dt 16.18 Judges and officers you are to appoint within all your gates that Adoni your God is giving you, according to your tribes; and they are to judge the people with righteous judgment.

- Trump appointed 226 Federal Judges in 4 years. Obama 320 in 2 terms, 8 years. Roe overturned.

- requesting not to go into Rafah.
- “Gaza Genocide is real.”

(Worthy News) – Israel has postponed its expected retaliatory strike on Iran after classified Pentagon documents detailing the planned operation were leaked and shared on both social media and major news outlets including CNN, an intelligence source has told the Times UK.

Israel’s anticipated strike on Iran is intended to be a retaliatory attack for the barrage of more than 180 ballistic missiles that Tehran launched against Israel on October 1.

Biological Sex: “transgender rights” should rather be cisgender [straight] gender rights.

Mutilation surgery financed. Minnesota is a transgender refuge state. Courts have emergency powers to remove children.

[Either XX or XY]

Religious liberty for doctors, cake makers, wedding planners, nurses.

ProLife: We don't have a pro-life candidate. Trump's 15 week restriction is meaningless, 95% abortions in first 15 weeks. Stripped Republican platform 1300 words reduced to ~98 words. But consider:

Dems: abortion clinic outside DNC

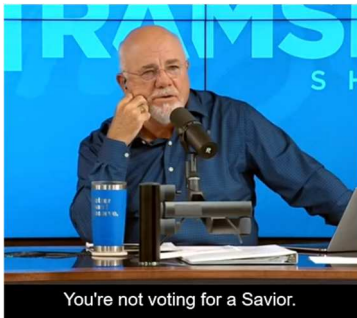

Legal until birth. Republicans now where Dems were 30 years ago.

Family Parental rights: Children belong to Adoni, and He has entrusted them to parents.

General incompetence: Elon Musk, founder and CEO of SpaceX, reported that his company is trying to provide Starlink internet and communications terminals to hurricane survivors in North Carolina but "FEMA is both failing to help AND won't let others help. This is unconscionable!!" He shared a video of SpaceX employees flying over the impacted area in a helicopter and said that FEMA "wouldn't let them land to deliver critical supplies ... my blood is boiling ..."

Florida Governor Ron DeSantis (R), whose state was struck by Helene first, noted that the federal government's response to the disaster has been so poor that he authorized Florida's National Guard and Department of Transportation to travel to North Carolina and conduct search and rescue operations, rebuild roads and bridges, and assist with recovery efforts. "We learned in Florida long ago, we don't rely on FEMA to do any of that type of activity," DeSantis said. He continued, "We rely on FEMA to basically be a bank account ... We take matters into our own hands for the preparation and the rescue and response."
