For context:

Korean War: 36,500 U.S. deaths

Vietnam War: 58,000 U.S. deaths

War in Afghan: 2,400 U.S. deaths

Iraq War 4,500: U.S. deaths

Total 101,400 U.S. military deaths since WW II

- The U.S. population is ~367 million
- The Israeli population is ~10 million, 7 million Jews

$367 \text{ million} \div 7 \text{ million} = 52$

Casualty figures in Israel need to be multiplied by 52 to feel the impact.

Total Israeli military casualties since 1948 are estimated at around 24,000.

24,000 x 52 = 1,248,000 proportionally

Total 101,400 U.S. military deaths since WW II

Why should we care about Israel's huge number of war deaths, and amazing national renewal?

There are 195 countries recognized globally, including 193 UN member states and 2 observer states.

All past history and prophetic future hinges on covenants G-d made.

Yermiyahu 31.30-36 “Here, the days are coming,” says Adoni, “when I will make a new covenant with the house of Isra’el and with the house of Y’udah. It will not be like the covenant I made with their fathers on the day I took them by their hand and brought them out of the land of Egypt; because they, for their part, violated my covenant, even though I, for my part, was a husband to them,” says Adoni. “For this is the covenant I will make with the house of Isra’el after those days,” says Adoni : “I will put my Torah within them and write it on their hearts; I will be their God, and they will be my people. No longer will any of them teach his fellow community member or his brother, ‘Know Adoni’; for all will know me, from the least of them to the greatest; because I will forgive their wickednesses and remember their sins no more.”

[Actualizing and enabling ALL blessings and promises.]

Yermiyahu 31.30-36 This is what Adoni says, who gives the sun as light for the day, who ordained the laws for the moon and stars to provide light for the night, who stirs up the sea until its waves roar — Adoni-Tzva’ot is his name:) “If these laws leave my presence,” says Adoni, “then the offspring of Isra’el will stop being a nation in my presence forever.” This is what Adoni says: “If the sky above can be measured and the foundations of the earth be fathomed, then I will reject all the offspring of Isra’el for all that they have done,” says Adoni.

This covenant, that we just read, is the key to understanding current human history.

What Is the Difference Between a Contract and a Covenant?

A contract is an entire agreement between parties, built on mutual promises and an exchange of value. A covenant is a specific promise or restriction.

Published Apr 1, 2026

What a Covenant Is: A covenant is a formal promise to do something or to refrain from doing something. Unlike a contract, which encompasses the entire deal between parties, a covenant is a single obligation or restriction.

[<https://legalclarity.org/what-is-the-difference-between-a-contract-and-a-covenant/>]

- A contract is contingent on the other party’s compliance.
- A covenant is a commitment, regardless of the other party.

In scripture, G-d made many relational promises to people.

Termed conditional covenants, or really contracts.

- Eden, Adam, Moshe, David
- The covenants with Noakh, Avraham and the renewed were unconditional.

Yer 31.3b Once again, equipped with your tambourines, you will go out and dance with the merry-makers.

There was and is NO dance or instruments in Orthodox or Traditional Jewish worship. [Rose Price, a Messianic Holocaust survivor and speaker in our midst for years, said to a questioning rabbi about the dancing, "It's OK. Maskhiakh has come. We are no longer a dispersed, rejected people." Something similar.]

Yer 31.4 Once again, you will plant vineyards on the hills of Shomron = Samaria.

Tommy & Zac Waller in the vineyards of Har Bracha, Samaria

About 20 years ago, some young Jewish men, fresh out of their mandatory army service, recognized that no one was living on a portion of the Mount Gerizim. They believed that it was the time and season to revive it. They wanted to resettle the land of their forefathers on the empty hillside near the top of the mountain.

Looking for ways to bring in some income, they considered planting vineyards. Experts were brought in to evaluate the land, the soil, and topography to give their opinions on planting vineyards. Their conclusion was that the soil was terrible, the land had wrong elevation, and a host of other reasons why the vineyard idea would never work.

Yet, as God-fearing men, they prayed proclaiming this scripture: "Again you will plant vineyards, on the hills of Samaria; The planters will plant and will enjoy them." Yer. 31:5 With faith in God, a biblical promise about vineyards in Samaria and a healthy dose of Israeli chutzpa (Yiddish slang term for "hardheaded nerve") they refused to give up.

[Nir Lavi, an Orthodox Jew]

They randomly chose some grape varieties and planted vineyards in Samaria. For the first time in almost 2000 years there was now a vineyard on the Mount of Blessing. And within just a few years the vineyards exploded, producing an abundance of fruit that was in high demand.

[Rashi, said, "When Palestine becomes so very fertile, Messiah's advent is near, and there can be no clearer sign than this."]

With such great success with growth on the Mount of Blessing, they decided to begin making their own wine. Soon, it also became wildly successful under the label Har Bracha or the Mount of Blessing vineyards. After some local success, Har Bracha decided to enter a few of their wines into a 14,500 blind bottle taste test in Europe. To everyone's surprise, Har Bracha won #2 in one category, landed #3 in another, beating out famed and established wineries from France and Italy.

[Europe was all excited UNTIL they found out that the vineyard was in Samaria = "occupied territories."]

[<https://firmisrael.org/learn/vineyards-in-samaria/>]

A Christian organization called HaYovel reached out to the vineyards after seeing a prophetic connection in the Scriptures, found in Isaiah 61:5 – “Strangers will stand and pasture your flocks and foreigners will be your farmers and your vinedressers.”

Speaking at a Holocaust Remembrance Day ceremony, Mossad Director David Barnea said operatives worked “in the heart of Tehran,” providing precise intelligence that enabled Israeli airstrikes against missile systems threatening civilians.

In one of his strongest public statements to date, Barnea declared that Mossad’s responsibility will end “only when this radical regime is replaced,” framing regime change in Iran as a central objective.

“That regime, which seeks our destruction, must pass from the world. This is our mission,” he said. “We will not stand by in the face of another existential threat.”

Outreach/Ingathering to extend the covenant

From our website home page – The Vision of Or HaOlam: Working to bring Jewish people, and those grafted in, to their covenantal identity in Messiah. Implies:

1. Salvation through the Atonement of the Messiah; personal faith in the atoning death and resurrection of Yeshua; it's all about the King.
2. Covenantal identity of Jewish people, not replacement
3. Restoration to Torah lifestyle
4. Restoration/survival of the nation of Israel.

(Covenantal identity, so Jewish believers don't assimilate. Romans 11:15 "For if their casting Yeshua aside means reconciliation for the world, what will their accepting him mean? It will be life from the dead!")
